EXTENUATING CIRCUMSTANCES PROCEDURES

Responsibilities

It is the responsibility of the Examinations team to communicate with candidates. The Chief Executive Officer is responsible for assessing the applications.

Procedures

Candidates who sit (an) examination component(s), but whose performance may have been impaired because of a serious medical or critical personal circumstance, may apply for permission to attempt the examination component at the next examination sitting. If the application for consideration of extenuating circumstances is successful, the affected component(s) will not be marked.

- Critical personal circumstances are those which have a “substantial” effect on the “normal” functioning of the candidate for a significant portion of the study period or the examination day. Critical personal circumstances include (but are not limited to) illness, injury and bereavement.
- Critical personal circumstances occurring more than four weeks before the examination date will not normally be considered.
- If the application is successful the candidate will be offered an examination of the affected component(s) at the next planned offering in the following year, or two years later for subjects offered every second year.
- Examinations will not be offered outside of the normal examination periods.
- All applications require certification by an appropriate registered health professional and must be made on the application form (Appendix A).
(<https://ripehosting.blob.core.windows.net/anzcvs-prod-media/27311/extenuating-circumstancesappendix-a.pdf>).
- All applications must be made within 14 days before and 2 days after the examination component(s) affected, except at the discretion of the CEO.
- The CEO will consider all applications on a case-by-case basis according to this policy. No guarantees of an application’s success can be made.
- In the event that a determination cannot be made, the CEO will call on the Chief Examiner and President to determine the application.
- The maximum period for completion of all components of the examination may, or may not, be extended at the discretion of the Chief Examiner on a case-by-case basis.
- The CEO and Chief Examiner will provide a report to Council annually outlining the number of applicants with the aim of reviewing the validity of the policy.
